

PRAYER FOR SOMEONE ELSE WHO IS SUFFERING DEPRESSION

Spirit of the Living God, I come before Your Throne today to pray for _____, who seems to be suffering from prolonged sadness. Lord, I don't know what else to do to help, but I know You do. I know You go with _____ wherever he/she goes and that he/she is not forsaken, but I don't think he/she knows it, Lord.

Lord I know You came to set the captives free. You are our shield and the lifter of our heads and I ask you to make Yourself known as that in _____'s life. I pray You will be a protective shield around _____ and give him/her hope. A lot of hope. I pray you would give him/her the strength to rise up with wings as eagles – to rise up above the problems and circumstances of this life.

I pray most of all, Lord, that You would awaken _____'s spirit and roll back the stones of unbelief from his/her heart. I know You are near to the broken-hearted. Please bind up his/her wounds and heal the depression and any suicidal tendencies in him/her.

I decree by the Power of the Blood of Jesus that he/she shall live and NOT die!! Lord I give You all the praise, and all the glory for saving and helping _____.

In Jesus precious Name I pray.

Amen
