

Warfare Prayer Against Fear & Anxiety

Lord I thank you that my life is blessed in so many ways and I live in abundance and good health. I praise you that I have not had the struggles many others have had because You have seen fit to bless me. I praise You, Lord, for so MANY blessings! I praise You, Lord God that YOU did not give me a spirit of fear, and YOU tell me I do not need to be anxious about anything, because whatever my situation is, You already saw it coming and You have it handled. THANK YOU, Lord!

The following warfare prayer needs to be spoken out loud, boldly:

And now, in the mighty and matchless Name of Jesus Christ my Savior, my King – the Name above every Name, I bind up the spirits of fear, worry and anxiety that have been attacking me. I curse you Fear, worry and Anxiety and I command you both to go to the deepest pit in Hell RIGHT NOW in Jesus mighty Name! I chain you together and I command you both to remain in hell in that pit and await the judgment of the Most High God. Go NOW in Jesus Name and don't you EVER return to me again for ALL eternity !!
